Campbell high school district

Special election called

THE APPOINTMENT of Dorothy Goble to the Campbell Union High School District school board has been set aside with a successful petition drive calling for a special election.

Out of the 618 signatures submitted by the December 14 deadline, 565 were declared valid after a week-long check by the registrar of voters office. Signatures representing 5 percent of the registered voters who cast ballots in the last school board election were required to call the election. According to a spokesman for the county office, 560 valid signatures were required.

The petition drive was initiated by Chuck Buron, 2177 Willester ave., San Jose, shortly after Goble was appointed by trustees to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Craig Smith.

THE ELECTION will be held on Tuesday, April 17 and the top vote getter will serve until the regular school board election next November.

Goble, a 12-year veteran of the high school board, was earlier unseated in her bid for a fourth term by a narrow margin.

There has been controversy surrounding the board appointment since shortly after the vacancy was announced in October.

Trustee Mac Martinez later was critical of the selection procedure stating he didn't feel district policy had been followed. Originally, the newspaper announcement of the vacancy was made three days before the filing deadline. That date was later extended one week.

At the eleventh hour Board President Ray Silva and several high school PTA leaders met with Buron to try to dissuade him from filing the petitions. They cited the cost of the special election, an estimated $38,000, as the main reason for their opposition.

BURON FILED the petitions, one hour before the deadline. He said later he felt a moral obligation to follow through.

Filing date for applicants for the school board vacancy will be January 18 through February 8, according to John Molchan, administrative assistant to the registrar. There is no filing fee, Molchan added, and no signatures required. Applicants must be registered voters residing within the school district.

Application papers will be available at the school district office, 3235 Union ave., San Jose, at the county registrar's office.

Plans for O'Connor Hospital at Campbell were unveiled last week. For the story see page 5 of today's PRESS.

Youth commission opening is announced

The City of Campbell is seeking a young person, between the ages of 13 and 21, to serve on the Youth Advisory Commission.

The vacancy in that seven-member commission was created by the resignation of Commissioner Stacie McMahon who moved out of the city.

The commission, which advises the city council on matters relating to youth, was also active this past year in such activities as the Fourth of July celebration, the recycle center at Campbell High School and conducted an evaluation of the Youth Employment Program.

Commission meetings are held on the third Monday of each month at 4 p.m. in City Hall.

Applicants must reside within the city limits and forms are available at the City Clerk's office, 75 N. Central ave.

Deadline for applications is Wednesday, January 31.

San Tomas area residents sought

Three people from the San Tomas area are being sought for a Campbell study committee to be set up by the city council in January.

The San Tomas Task Force will conduct a six-month study of land use and zoning, recreation and open space, public works improvements, housing and annexations.

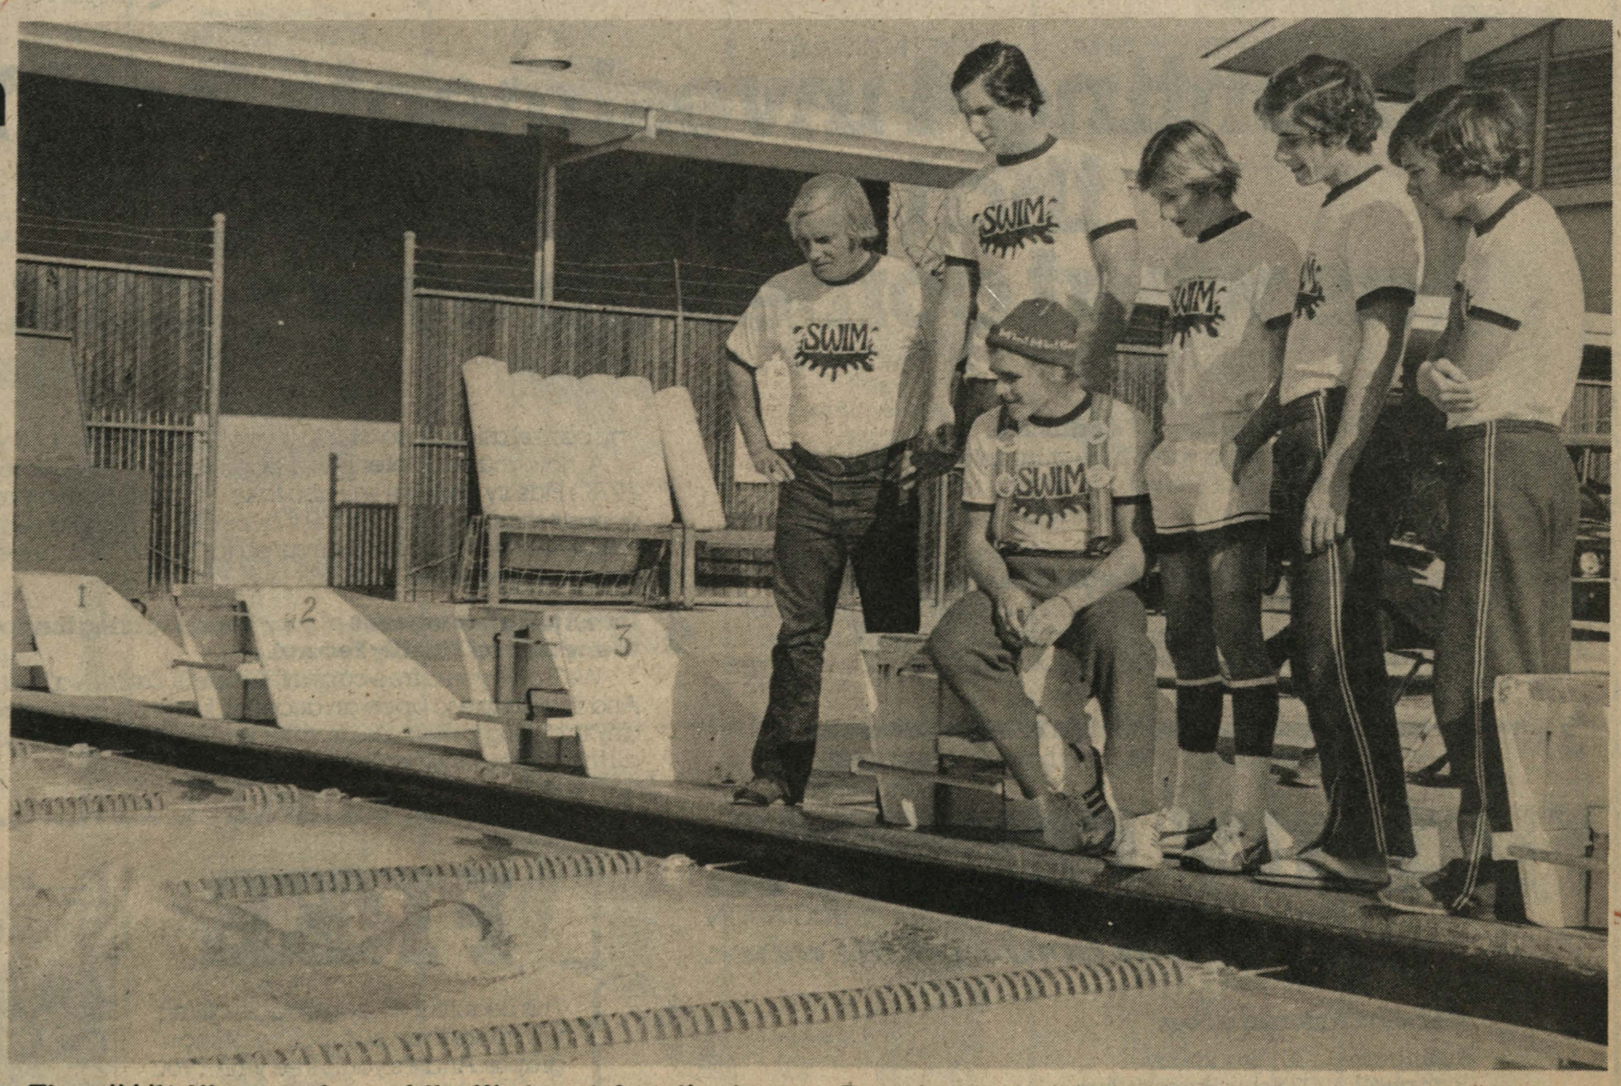
Applicants for the three citizen positions must live in the area west of Winchester and the San Tomas Expressway and south of San Tomas Creek.

The committee will also include two members of the city council and one representative from each of the four city advisory commissions.

Deadline for applications is 5 p.m. on January 12.

Forms are available at City Hall, 75 N. Central ave. For information call the City Manager's office at 378-8141 weekdays.

New world record for local swimmers



They did it! Nine members of the Westmont Aquatics team set a new world record for the 300-mile marathon swim last week. In fact, they cut the existing record of nine days in half. Last Wednesday evening the youths finished the last lap of the 300 miles in four days, seven hours, 50 minutes and 21 seconds. The official record is now being reviewed by AAU officials and will be sent off to the Guiness Book of World Records people this week, says Coach Bill Zirzow, shown above with the record setters. New world records are reviewed in April so if no one sets a faster time between now and then there'll be some local names in the 1979 edition. They include: Chris Soule, Eric Beauchemin, Jeff Holshevnikoff, Tom Boese, Kevin Zirzow and Bill Zirzow.

High school students spread holiday cheer

By PAT LIDEN

There are no Scrooges among Campbell Union High School District students. Caroling, playing Christmas music, collecting food for the needy, giving open houses for parents, raising money for crippled children, and donating blood, the students spread their cheer throughout their communities.

Three years ago, Campbell High School students adopted Halloran Hall in Aptos for Christmas sharing. Each year, through donations collected by members of the Spirit Commission, they have replenished the grocery shelves at the school for homeless and needy teenagers.

This year Branham High School students, through collections made by Key Club members, joined Campbell High in aiding Halloran Hall. Campbell teacher Rod McDermott who volunteered his help, took two loads of canned goods and staple foods to the school established to help teenagers in Santa Clara and Santa Cruz counties.

Westmont and Prospect Key Club members placed collection boxes for canned goods, clothing items, and toys in every classroom and organized contests to see which classes would be the most bountiful Santas. Westmont students gave their donations to the Red Cross for distribution to needy families. Prospect's donations which included a turkey bought by the club, were distributed through Kiwanis Clubs. Key Club is a junior auxiliary of the Kiwanis Club.

Blackford students, headed by student body vice-president Jeff Williams set a goal of 1,300 cans of food, one for each student enrolled in the school. Their donations were given to the Catholic Workers' House in downtown San Jose.

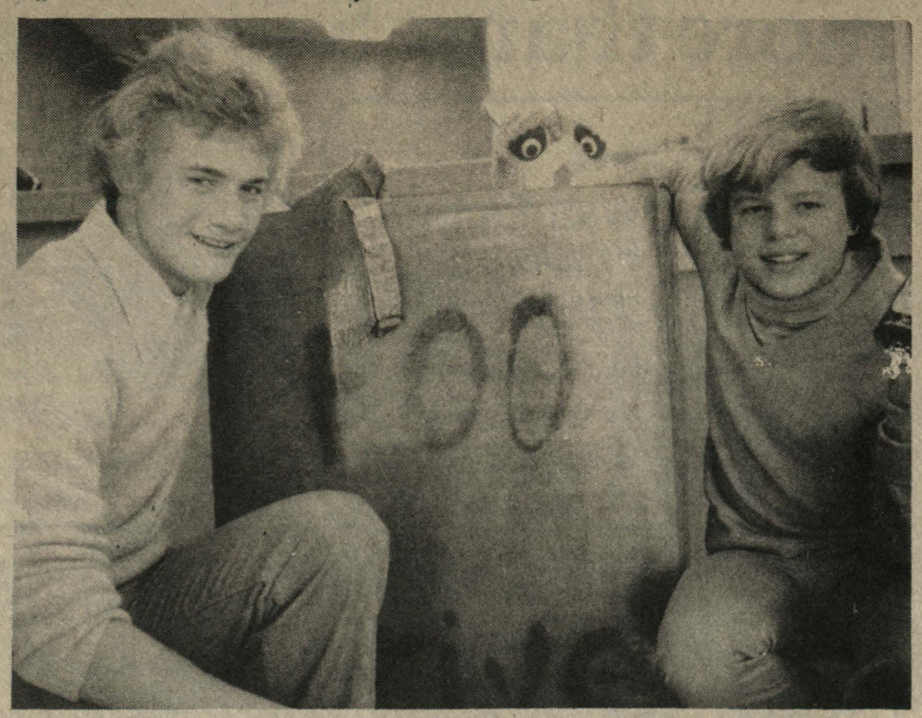
Twenty members of Del Mar's Key Club pinged and ponged their first five days of Christmas vacation in a marathon at El Paseo de Saratoga shopping center to raise funds for crippled children. Since Key Club, formerly an all-male group, has become co-ed, girls and boys took two-hour turns playing non-stop, rain or shine, night and day for 120 hours from Friday, Dec. 15 to Wednesday, Dec. 20. When they collect the pledges solicited for the hours they played, club members hope to exceed the $1,020 they raised for the Crippled Children's Society in a similar marathon last year.

A special "gift of life" was given by approximately 400 students and school personnel who volunteered for blood donations to the Red Cross at Del Mar, Leigh, and Branham High Schools. With slogans such as "Blood was meant to be circulated," committees signed up 17 and 18-year-old students and school employees for pre-holiday donation days Dec. 12-14.

Girls and boys in home economics classes displayed their work in sewing and home crafts as they served Christmas cookies, cakes, breads, and candies to parents at Yuletide open houses Dec. 13 and 14.

Choirs, bands, and orchestras played Christmas music for thousands of parents and friends who thronged school auditoriums for the annual Christmas music festivals Dec. 13 and 14. Carolers, accompanied by instrumental groups, sang at shopping centers, senior citizens' centers, elementary schools, and for shut-ins at convalescent hospitals.

At Blackford High School 200 students, accompanied by the school band, staged an old-fashioned caroling Dec. 21. They brought Christmas songs and music to residents throughout their neighborhood and then returned to school to carol for members of the Boosters' Club who served them refreshments.



TWO MEMBERS of the Westmont Key Club, Brian Christiansen and Chris Hull, are shown with the collection box which netted 900 pounds of food, 1,500 articles of clothing and toys for Red Cross Project HELP. High School students throughout the district were busy with holiday projects this year.

Eagles dominate ALL-SUN team

By DICK SPARRER
Sports Editor

PARENTS ALWAYS HOLD close to their hearts the Christmas gifts they receive from their kids — they always seems so very special.

It was no different in the Stearns family this year. The gift Phil Stearns received from his little daughter Anna is very special to him. But that wasn't the only gift Stearns received this December that meant a lot to him — so was the gift he was presented by the rest of his kids.

Stearns was given an early Christmas present by the rest of his kids — all 48 of them — when his Oak Grove Eagles rolled to a 52-7 win over St. Francis on Dec. 15 to claim the Central Coast Section football championship for 1978.

But it wasn't a jolly round man with a long white beard delivering Stearns' early Christmas gift, it was a 5'10", 175 pound quarterback with a rifle arm — Marty Mornhinweg.

And it was because Mornhinweg played such a key role in Oak Grove's incredible 1978 season that the junior quarterback has been picked the Most Valuable Player on the seventh annual All-SUN high school football team.

Mornhinweg heads a cast of 58 prep gridders picked to the All-SUN team, that this year includes players from the De Anza, Santa Clara and West Catholic Athletic Leagues for the first time ever.

OAK GROVE dominates the seventh annual team with seven Eagles claiming first team spots and an eighth player grabbing a second team berth.

Mornhinweg, the author of 20 touchdown passes on the year, led the Eagles to a 14-1 record in 1978. Along with an outstanding arm, Mornhinweg displayed the poise, leadership and intelligence of an outstanding, veteran quarterback even though he's just a junior.

Oak Grove won Team of the Year honors in the All-SUN poll. The Eagles won the Mt. Hamilton Athletic League and Region III championships on their way to the CCS crown and became the first high school team in California to win 14 games in a season since the 1920's.

Eagle linebacker-fullback Dan Craig also claimed a special honor on the All-SUN team as the co-Comeback Player of the Year. Craig missed three games this year with a ruptured blood vessel in his left leg but returned to be a key figure in the Oak Grove stretch drive.

Craig shared the comeback honor with John Giagiari of St. Francis. The Lancer quarterback sprained an ankle early in the year and missed St. Francis' game with Saratoga, the only Lancer loss before CCS. The Lancers were trailing the next week at halftime against Mitty before Giagiari came off the bench to lead his team to a victory and on to a 12-2 season.

MARK MAGEE OF Milpitas was picked the Most Valuable Back on the All-SUN team. The speedy Patriot running back romped for 1,150 yards on the year, averaging over 10 yards per carry. His incredible moves left defenders laying in his tracks.

Rugged Santa Clara defensive lineman Dennis Engel was tabbed the Most Valuable Lineman after a fine year for the Panthers. Engel went both ways for Santa Clara but starred defensively at tackle. Engel was picked his league's top lineman and was tabbed one of the Santa Clara County's top two scholar-athletes.

Los Altos place-kicker Jacques DeBra was our selection as the ALL-SUN Most Valuable Specialty Player. The Lancer kicker displayed the strongest and most accurate foot in our area. DeBra converted on 16 of 16 extra point kicks and drilled five field goals for the Knights in the regular season. And it was his last second field goal that provided the Knights with their upset win over Peterson in the CCS play-offs.

Prospect was our pick as the Comeback Team of the Year. The Panthers were 1-5 midway through the season but won their last four straight games to finish the year at 5-5. Included in that win string were victories over West Valley Athletic League champion Los Gatos and Branham. The Panthers beat the Bruins 15-13 on the last day of the season to knock Branham out of the title picture.

THERE WERE MANY fine coaches in the area this fall, but we went with San Jose high boss Myron Zaccheo as the All-SUN coach of the year. Zaccheo led his small Bulldog team to wins in their first five games of the season, including an upset win over Leland. San Jose finished the year at 7-3 after going 0-10 in 1977!

Other coaches considered for coach of the year honors were Oak Grove's Phil Stearns, Independence's Al Cementina, Milpitas' Bob Crabtree, Los Altos' Bob Baird, Peterson's John Sepulveda, Monta Vista's Buck Shore, Saratoga's Benny Pierce, St. Francis' Ron Calcagno, Bellarmine's Walt Arnold, Los Gatos' Charlie Wedemeyer and Prospect's Earl Adams.

COMEBACK — Oak Grove's Dan Craig was selected Co-Comeback Player of the Year along with St. Francis' John Giagiari. Craig battled back from a leg injury to play a key role in Oak Grove's surge to the CCS championship.

O'Connor at Campbell

New hospital will open in Campbell next month

By PAT SAFFORD

By mid-January the long vacant hospital at 1650 Winchester blvd. will open its doors again as a treatment center for victims of chronic pain goes into operation. By late January two other services, an ambulatory surgery service and an emergency care center, will also be underway.

The former Campbell Community Hospital closed its doors two days before Christmas last year after months of financial and personnel problems. O'Connor Hospital purchased the 48-bed facility on September 22 and renovations have been underway since then.

According to O'Connor administrator Rodney Aymond, the three services to be offered locally came as a result of talks with local citizens through the Civic Improvement Commission.

"Their number one priority was a drop-in emergency service," Aymond said.

The Emergency Care Center, to open in late January, will provide basic medical and surgical care with a physician on-call 24 hours a day Aymond said. Still to be decided, he added, was whether to staff the local hospital with one physician for a 12-14 hour shift (on call at other times) or if a doctor needs to be on duty 24 hours a day.

If there's sufficient need, Aymond explained, O'Connor will staff the facility with physicians around the clock.

The emergency services to be provided include treatment for most injuries and illnesses but there will not be facilities for life threatening situations (such as a cardiac care unit). Those critical patients will be stabilized here and then transported to a nearby full-service hospital.

Patients for the two other services, ambulatory surgery and treatment of chronic pain, will be accepted by physician referrals only.

Those who have suffered from on-going and persistent pain for more than six months can be referred by their doctors for the treatment program which will include physician and group therapy, biofeedback, counseling, a reduction in medication and occupational therapy. The pain center, the first in this county, will be under the direction of Drs. Philipp Lippe, Leslie Knott and Stephen Imrie. Other team members will be psychologist Al Scopp and Patty Allen, R.N., center director.

Ambulatory surgery is elective, non-emergency minor surgery where patients do not require lengthy hospitalizations. Procedures will be scheduled Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. beginning in late January.

In addition to the three programs support services such as pharmacy, X-ray and laboratory will be provided at the local hospital.

Aymond said Friday that the three treatment centers don't complete O'Connor's plans locally. Other possible services are being studied now.

And whether the programs offered will be permanent depends on local physicians and on the public.

"If the programs are used," Aymond said, "we'll keep them."

REVIEWING plans for the new hospital facility in Campbell are, from left, Jan Douglas, assistant administrator and Ken MacNeely, director of maintenance and engineering.

THE NEW SIGN on Winchester boulevard, south of Hamilton, indicates the changes that have been going on inside the facility, purchased by O'Connor Hospital three months ago. The first program is scheduled to begin in mid-January.

Westmont senior competes in state Junior Miss competition

Santa Clara County's Junior Miss is Lucinda Dove, Westmont High School senior, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dove, 18796 Aspesi Drive, Saratoga.

By placing first among 50 county finalists, Miss Dove won the Junior Miss crown and a $500 scholarship in a contest sponsored by the Jaycees.

As county winner in the nation-wide competition, Miss Dove became eligible to compete for the state title at Santa Rosa Jan. 27 to Feb. 3.

At the state contest she will be judged on the bases of scholarship, talent, personality and poise. For the talent part of the competition, Miss Dove, who has been studying violin for seven years, will play excerpts from Edvard Grieg's "Wedding Day at Troldhaugen."

An honor student at Westmont, Miss Dove is a member of the California Scholarship Federation, the school's speech and debate, French and drama clubs and the school orchestra. She sings and plays the piano as well as the violin and has taken part in numerous school musicals and plays and drama productions at West Valley College and San Jose City College.

She is a member of the San Jose Youth Symphony and organist for her church ward. She was runner-up for homecoming queen and in the Miss America county contest last summer.

LUCINDA DOVE

During the week-long state competition she will be judged on talent, her scholarship and activity records, on modeling an evening gown, on answering quiz questions, and on a personal interview with the judges.

The state Junior Miss will go to the national competition which promises several large scholarships. "My dreams don't take me that far," said Miss Dove, who plans a future career in music and drama.

An Affair to Remember with BEA RENÉ

© Bea Rene 1978

An exciting 94TH AERO SQUADRON has plenty of New Year's plans for their patrons . . . they'll feature their reg. Sun. Brunch Dec. 31 & that evening (being New Year's Eve) they'll feature a spec. menu for a New Year's Eve celebration w/dancing in their disco lounge, hats, horns, noisemakers, & plenty of libations available. Here's an innovation — they'll also offer a "late riser" buffet on New Year's Day from 11-3 p.m. You can lay odds that I'm thinking about joining this crowd for sure. Be sure to call early for your reservations, where you can celebrate New Year's in this nostalgic atmosphere overlooking the sparkling lights of the S.J. Airport.

If your idea of a great New Year's Eve is enjoying a superb dinner in a fine restaurant, followed by a nite of top-flight entertainment, let me recommend PRIME RIB INN. Mgr. Louis Orsini w/be featuring a spec. Holiday menu of the most popular entrees from the reg. dinner menu — w/dinners priced from just $6.75. It has to be one of the best values around! After a sumptuous dinner, adjourn to the Celebrity Lounge & ring in the New Year w/a great bunch of people at Claudio Medeiros' pianobar. PRIME RIB INN w/open at 5 p.m. New Year's Eve & since an overflow crowd is expected, better make those reservations now!

YUEN YUNG'S RESTAURANT on Bark Ln. (just off Sar.-Sun. Rd.) w/be open New Year's Eve featuring their same fine menu & invites everyone to come in & bring the whole family . . . they'll also be open on New Year's Day w/their reg. hours & menu, too. Owner Frank Szeto & his family wish everyone a Happy & Successful New Year & hope they'll stop by to enjoy their fine cuisine soon. (They make some of the best spare-ribs I've tasted!)

A Happy & Prosperous New Year is wished everyone by the HWEI FU SHING RESTAURANT . . . talented chef/owner Pang On Lui & his family w/be on hand New Year's Eve & New Year's Day serving from their reg. menu the same fine Chinese cuisine that has made this little hide-away become very popular thruout the years. Many restaurants w/be closed New Year's Day, so put this on your list, if you're in the mood to get away from the big celebration the night before & enjoy a fine Chinese dinner.

DINING GUIDE

as recommended by Bea René

NEW YEAR'S NOSTALGIA . . .

How We Miss: Ralph Faravelli's friendly greeting & happy face at THE ONION BARN (however, new owner, Alex, is a super personable fella, & we like him too) . . . Bob & Marie Whitacre's popular restaurant, THE CITY DUMP — it was the "in" place to dine & be seen, & we think they should come back from Mexico & open up another super gathering place . . . Dan Biagi's COTE D'AZUR in Atherton, where he was always running between the lounge & dining room greeting all his friends . . . THE ATHERTON CLUB which was in business for so many years — it's almost the same at MALONEY'S, but with an updated personality, true . . . BELTRAUMO'S Lounge where those in the "know" hung out — all the local & S. F. business persons stopped by to gab, talk shop & enjoy the friendly conversation of Joe Moreno & the other friendly bartenders . . . the RED COTTAGE — how lovely that restaurant was when owned by Hank Pace & family . . . THE ALGIERS when owned by Bill Doyle (who is now head of advertising at Nowels Publications, Menlo Park) . . . THE GOLDEN WHEEL on Saratoga Ave. owned by charming "Ban" (full name, Banyot Praneetpolgrant) — it struggled along but the local diners couldn't adjust fast enough to the authentic Thai cuisine — & it was divine . . . Col George Chow, veteran restaurateur, who founded two GOLDEN PAVILION restaurants — San Francisco & Los Altos & also helped establish Ming's Restaurant in Palo Alto & Kan's Chinese Restaurant in San Francisco . . . we also miss Barry Cox, former owner of PEAR WILLIAMS, Menlo Park — his wife & friends are carrying on & managing this restaurant, serving the same excellent Continental cuisine prepared by Chef Tom McCombie. . . . Brown, & waitresses Nancy & Viola — we loved our view table (scintillating) — everything was great — but I do have one disappointment . . . I always loved Van's Sirloin Tips — they were extra special. So I ordered the Filet Tips which are on the new menu — they were really tough — & I can't understand why — perhaps they had a new chef that night or a new butcher. Wished I'd ordered the tender Abalone or Van's great steak . . . will try again!

AFTER DINING IN Belmont, stopped by the VILLA CHARTIER (an old favorite haunt of mine many years ago) — the same ambience existed, the same organ music & crowd, & also my old friendly bartender, Sammy, was on hand to greet us. Then decided to walk over to the VILLA HOTEL, & was delighted to see ROSE MARIE at the piano bar . . . she plays every night until about 9:30, when a band plays for dancing — remember Rose Marie used to perform at the PRIME RIB INN in Palo Alto? She's great & I've known her for many years — she has a loyal following & her own inimitable style . . . stop by. Oops . . . almost forgot a very important person — walked back over to THE LANAI (next to Villa Chartier) & couldn't believe my eyes to see my old friend, Manager Bernard Abrams, who not only is a knowledgeable restaurateur of note, but is an accomplished magician — & he proved he still had a few tricks up his sleeve — they serve excellent Polynesian cuisine . . . do try it.

Dazzling effects, yesteryear's goodness in Superman

FASTER than a speeding bullet, More powerful than a locomotive. Able to leap tall buildings in a single bound.

Look, up in the sky.
It's a bird.
It's a plane.
No, it's a movie!

But it flies. Oh, yes, it actually, factually flies.

The Warner Brothers production of "Superman" is the most delightful and enchanting film of the year. The special effects, praised in public long before the film was released, are truly extraordinary. Nothing in the recent past compares with them. Superman flies and he does so with the aid of wires or diving boards or rear-projection cameras. And the impact of such magical flight transports the adult viewer back to those thrilling days of yesteryear when we watched movie and television heroes impossible things in the name of truth, justice and the American way, without compromise, without embarrassment and without question. And because it has the power to transport adults and to entertain and intrigue children by its technical accomplishment, its innocent theme and its exciting dramatic performances, "Superman" is a truly super achievement.

Consumers corner

Don't let insurance claim leave you with a bad repair

By SLIM INGHAM

Send all mail for this column to Consumers United, P.O. Box 311, Palo Alto, Ca. 94302, or call 494-1858 for consumer advice.

The insurance company (Allstate) paid in full for the body and paint work on my car after I was hit and received severe damage. The body work was good but the paint job came out rough, full of flaws and a lot of overspray on the chrome trim and bumpers. The job was done at a shop to which the Allstate agent sent the car and the check was made out to the shop, not to me. My complaint to the claims agent was responded to with, "it's a problem between you and the shop." Doesn't Allstate have the obligation to get me a good paint job?

Donald Stagnaro, Palo Also

Yes, since they decided who was doing the work, they became the prime contractor with all the responsibility that entails.

Consumers United has seen the car and agrees that the paint job wasn't done to accepted standards. If necessary you can go to small claims court. The first step is to get a signed estimate from a reputable body shop to establish a dollar value on your claim. Then file against Allstate for this amount. Allstate in turn may recover its claim settlement money from the body shop.

You may also choose to sue both Allstate and the body shop as a co-defendant and let the court decide who will pay or if they should split the payment to you.

Send a stamped, self addressed legal size envelope to Consumers United for our publication on the use of the small claims court. The cost is 50c. Include a note specifying that you want "Suing and Serving in the Small Claims Court."

The so called "professional" painter that did our house for $780 must have made $740 on the job. Only two months after completion the paint faded and began to chalk off the outside stucco walls. The painter won't answer my phone calls. Enclosed is a copy of our contract. Please help if you can.

Mrs. C.A. Stone, Sunnyvale

We (Consumers United) inspected the house, contacted the painter and arranged that the job be done correctly with top quality materials. The painter's excuse for the bad job was that his "apprentices" did the work. He has returned the $780 to Mrs. Stone and the money will be held in escrow until the successful and timely completion of the job.

We have done business (mail order) with a firm in Los Angeles that has a P.O. Box as its only address. Our last order went unfilled and all we have received is our cashed check. I have a brother in Los Angeles who could help if we could locate the address of the P.O. Box holder. Is there any way one can do this?

Anna Mossford, San Jose

Easy! The post office where the box is located is required (by law) to give the name and address of the box holder if he or she is conducting business through that P.O. Box. If the holder has skipped with your money, or fails to deliver, contact the postal inspector.

Time to reserve space

If you are part of a group that wants to hold a picnic in a Santa Clara County park next summer, it's time to make a reservation.

However, for the first time it will cost you a reservation fee. This is 20 cents per person, according to the Parks and Recreation Department. They explained that in the past so many people wanted to use the larger, group picnic sites that the phones were always tied up for days starting December 15th. Often, several people from one group would call and each reserve a different date for a picnic, but very few of them could call and cancel.

Starting December 15th, if you want a group picnic site call 356-7151, but be prepared to put up a reservation fee.

More people go to museums than play tennis, go bowling, or go fishing.

Set territorial lines against pushy newcomer, Scorpio

DEC. 30 THROUGH JAN. 5

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Newcomer arrives — prepare for annual winter snow job. Fall for this flake, Ari, and year ahead will be packed with problems. Throw the rascal out and future will be clear as crystal. Week drifts to an interesting fini.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20): Keep promise made to self, Taurus, and you resolve personal conflict. Courier waits patiently (under mistletoe) to deliver message. Get into collection business and buckle down.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Non-verbal message arrives. To fully understand, Gem, you must stay put, stay alert, stay up and stay sober. Heed advice and you also manage to stay out of trouble.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Judgment is exceptionally keen this week. Don't let fear immobilize you. The crab who hesitates too long winds up in aspic.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22): As you head toward your destination, Leo, take time to enjoy the journey. The way is often more important than the goal. Sometimes, dear heart, the way is the goal. Week ends on note of anticipation.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Don't permit associate to annoy you, Virgo. Take action before situation deteriorates into annual brouhaha. Be "uppity." Point to door and tell this twit exactly where to go. Week ends with a sigh.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Resistance may be low, Libra, so guard health. Join in festivities but exercise moderation. In short, keep your celebrated "nose for news" out of the punch bowl.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21): Pushy newcomer makes the scene. This person has about as much subtlety as Genghis Khan, so draw firm territorial lines. If that doesn't work, Scorp, get out the hammer and nails and start building a fence. Week ends with a holler.

SARITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21): Even when others disagree with what you have to say, Saj, they listen, for they love the way you say it. However, this week be circumspect concerning personai opinions. If need be — tape your big, beautiful mouth shut.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Connection can be made this week which will be downright therapeutic. Relax, Cap, and forget your missionary zeal to reform the entire human race. Uncork, unhook and unwind.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): Local scuttlebutt may be food for thought, Aquarius, but it's the type of food to give you heartburn. Unplug your hearing aid, pet, and relax in blissful ignornace.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): If you lead someone a merry chase for too long, Pisces, chaser will tire of seeing your back and find someone new. Go back to square one and start over.

Program brochures available

FREE winter program brochures are now available at YWCA offices throughout Santa Clara Valley, and telephone requests received this week will be mailed without charge. Phone numbers are 295-4011 or 269-7534.

After January 2 brochures must be picked up or requests must be accompanied by a 15¢ stamp. Previously all brochures have been mailed free, but the price of postage for those not included in the original bulk mailing to members has become prohibitive.

YW offices are: Metropolitan San Jose, 375 South Third Street; East San Jose, 1694 Adrian Way; Cambrian, 4343 Leigh Avenue; South San Jose, 1200 Blossom Hill Road (Monday, Wednesday, Thursday) and 7275 Santa Teresa Blvd. (Tuesday); and Sunnyvale, 355 West Olive (#202).

Registration is now open for classes, trips, special events, and interest groups planned for YW members and friends. The YW in Santa Clara Valley is open to all women and girls; men and boys may participate in activities as associates. General membership is $6.50 a year for women 17 and over. Associate fee for those 17 and over is $5. Youth membership and associate fee is $1.50.

"NURSES MUST READ THE MEREDITH SUN NEWSPAPERS"
Because we had many, many applicants for the positions for which we advertised in your newspapers" said Mrs. Pat Guilfoy of Pleasant View Convalescent Home, Cupertino.
Not only nurses, but butchers, bakers, candlestick makers, secretaries, salespersons, assemblers, engineers ALL read one of the 16 Santa Clara County Meredith Sun Newspapers.
